Evaluation

Lina Trebiene presents herself: „For more than 30 years I have been working with young people with intellectual disabilities and for young people with intellectual disabilities. Working with this target group is an endless challenge and discoveries.

Maybe way I like this job so much!
I have two passions: travel and vanilla ice cream.
I am fascinated by innovation, creative and unconventional attitude to everybody and to everything.
My hobby – swimming.
My motto–“The tragedy in life doesn’t lie in not reaching your goal. The tragedy lies in having no goal to reach.”
(Benjamin Mays).

Maris Gravis has over 15 years’ experience providing social services for people with disabilities, especially – persons with intellectual disability.

He has worked on disabilities issues in national and EU level, including Regulation 1107/2006 on the Rights of Disabled Air Passengers.

Maris combines professional skills and personal experience as a younger brother for sister with mental health disability. It gives deep knowledge and true understanding of person with mental disabilities needs.

Maris has 10 years’ experience in providing non-formal trainings on several topics - persons with mental disabilities, social services implementation, leadership, project management, social skills, etc.
For Maris training process as itself, is as important as the knowledge gained at the end of trainings. So each trainings include many interesting visual material, discussion, cognitive processes and jokes.
